DORIS MARCELLE ADAMS Dot

"The hand that hath made you fair hath made you good."

Traffic Squad, 4, 3; Lambda Tau Sigma, 4, 3; Basketball, 4, 3, 2; Orchestra, 4; Glee Club, 4; A.A., 4; Student Council, 4; Victory Corps, 4; Senior Play Committee, 4; Victory Dance Committee, 4; Year Book Staff, 4; Junior Prom Committee, 3; Sophomore Hop Committee, 2; Hockey, 2

Dot is one of those happy-go-lucky gals who seem to let nothing bother them. She has a really fine sense of humor, which makes everyone like her. Dadams is an athlete of no mean ability; she has proved that fact by her support on the basketball team. As shown by the record, she is an all-round woman.

NANCY ANDERSON Nan, Andy

"Hail to thee, blithe spirit!"

A.A. 4, 3, 2; Traffic Squad, 4, 3; Lambda Tau Sigma, 4, 3; Manager Hockey Squad, 4; Year Book Staff, 4; Senior Play Committee, 4; Victory Corps, 4; National Honor Society, 4; Hockey Squad Assistant Manager, 3; Dramatics Club, 3; Junior Prom Committee, 3; Usher at Junior Prize Speaking, 3; Usher at Graduation, 3; Sophomore Hop Committee, 2

Andy, our dependable manager of the hockey squad, and one grand gal, whom no one can accuse of antisociability, possesses the rare quality of being able to laugh at herself—a trait which always makes her loved by others.

ROBERT K. ANDERSON Bob

"Labor is thy strength."

Bob is a very quiet fellow, but underneath this outer modesty his subtle humor and willingness to help in any way has aided many; just ask his neighbors in his home room. Bob is going to bring fame to our town, with his skill in bicycle racing. We hope he finds time from his racing to keep raising flowers in his greenhouse.

CLAIRE L. BIRD Birdie

"A good disposition is looked upon with envy."

Orchestra, 4, 3, 2, 1; A.A., 3, 2; Junior Prom, 3; Year Book, 4; Sophomore Hop Committee, 2; Sophomore Party, 2; Softball, 1; Hockey, 1; Basketball, 1; Traffic, 1; Roller Skating Party, 2

Birdie appears to be a quiet girl, but you never can tell till you know her. She has always appeared as though she had stepped from a page from the latest Vogue. With her determination and manner, Claire will make a fine nurse.

JAMES L. BIRNIE Jimmy

"Look, he's winding up the watch of his wit;
By and by it will strike."

Baseball, 4, 3, 2; Basketball, 4; Senior Play Committee, 4; Football, 4; Junior Prom, 3

Jimmy has proved to be a willing worker on many of our social occasions. Jimmy has displayed his athletic ability for dear old Beal in all three school seasons. He has been known to wield a mean hockey stick outside of school also. That's our Jimmy!

GLADYS VIOLET BOURBEAU Gladys

"Content is a pearl of great price."

A.A., 4, 3, 2, 1; Glee Club, 3, 2, 1; Operetta, 3, 1; Year Book, 4; Senior Play, 4; Harvest Dance, 4

Gladys is best known to her class by the name of Shrimp. She has been in the cafeteria to help during fifth period every day. Wonder if she has gained pointers for the future, as Dave Cupid decrees it's matrimony for her. Gladys, we wish you success in either the commercial or matrimonial field.

BARBARA ELIZABETH BRESLIN Bette

"We know what we are, but know not what we may be."

National Honor, 4, 3; Spy, 4; Senior Play Cast, 4; Year Book Staff, 4; Play Committee, 4; Student Council, 4; Victory Corps, 4; Forensic League, 3; Dramatics Club, 3; Junior Prize Speaking, 3; Junior Prom Committee, 3; Gazette Staff, 3; Sophomore Hop Committee, 2; Sophomore Play Cast, 2; Girls' Softball Team, 2; Sophomore Social, 2; Sophomore Movie Committee, 2; Pyramid, 1; Freshman Prize Speaking, 1

"Bette"—a talented actress, independent, appreciative of her friends—is always well-groomed, and looks lovely.

"Be hopeful, gentlemen;
Perhaps the Government will help you now."

Crew 4, 3, 2, 1; Senior Play Committee, 4; Sophomore Play Committee, 2

Tom is the hunter and fisherman of our class; strangely enough, after the respective seasons come along, Tom always has quite a bit of make-up work to pass in. He has also been one of our ever victorious crew members. Tommy should climb high in the political world with his gift of self-expression on topics of domestic, national, and international interest.

MARION E. CADIEUX Brownie

"All the world loves a good sport."

Basketball, 3, 2; A.A., 4; Senior Movie Committee, 4; Year Book Staff, 4; Swing Shift Dance, 4; Basketball Co-captain, 4; Junior Prom Committee, 3; Sophomore Hop, 2

Marion is a girl of many smiles, especially when there is a joke going around. She has the talents of a real sport, and has showed her sportsmanship while being co-captain of the basketball team this year. Her personality has made her popular, and she is always an asset in any crowd.

RICHARD JAMES COREY Dick

"A wise and witty fellow is he."

National Forensic League, 4, 3, 2; National Honor Society, 4, 3; Senior Play Cast, 4; Junior Prize Speaking, 3; Freshman Prize Speaking, 1

A walking dictionary? Why, no, that is Dick. He has done excellent work in Prize Speaking, having won a first place in the National Forensic League state contest. He was also an enormous help in our Senior Play. Dick has a hobby of making sailboats, on one of which we hope he may sail the Sea of Ambition, and land on the Shore of Success.

RICHARD B. CUTTING Cut

"So you are off the ground and in your element."

A.A., 4, 3, 2, 1; Senior Play Committee, 4

Cut was the sound effects man of our production of "Peg O' My Heart," and his excellence in that field helped to make our play a success. Cut has a patriotic tendency, which is leading him to the Army Air Force. He claims that he will live a bachelor to the ripe old age of seventy, but we know better!

ELEANOR M. DAVISON Ellie

"Self-confidence is the keynote of success."

A.A., 4, 3, 2, 1; Traffic, 4, 3; National Honor, 4, 3; Basketball, 3, 2; Editor-in-chief Year Book, 4; Swing Shift Dance, 4; Senior Play Lighting Committee, 4; D.A.R., 4; Junior Prom, 3; Sophomore Hop, 2

Ellie is the gal who has leadership as a high quality, and she has showed it by winning in our class the D.A.R. trip to Boston. When anyone has needed help, Ellie has always been there. Her winning smile has caused many a male heart to flutter. With her matchless personality, she will never lack in fun, fame and friends.

BETTY P. DEAN Betty

"Not that I hate study less, but that I love fun more."

A.A., 4, 3, 2, 1; Hockey, 4, 3, 2; Basketball, 4, 3, 2; Victory Corps, 4; Traffic Squad, 3; Softball, 3; Junior Prom Committee, 3; Usher at Graduation, 3; Usher at Junior Prize Speaking, 3; Dramatics, 3; Sophomore Hop, 2; Sophomore Social, 2; Pyramid, 1

The Goddess of Sport holds Betty tightly by the hand. One sport alone is not enough for her; she excels in them all. Determination is another of her assets; for, after all others failed, she remained the only girl to delve deep into the mysteries of aeronautics. To be late conveniently requires skill—Betty has it.

MARIAN RUTH DEERING Ruthie

"My strength is as the strength of ten, Because my heart is pure."

A.A., 4, 3, 2, 1; Traffic Squad, 4, 3; Lambda Tau Sigma, 4, 3; Manager Girls' Basketball Team, 4; Year Book Staff, 4; Senior Play Committee, 4; National Honor Society, 4; Assistant Manager Girls' Basketball Team, 3; Dramatics Club, 3; Junior Prom Committee, 3; Usher at Graduation, 3; Sophomore Hop Committee, 2; Sophomore Skating Party, 2; Sophomore Play Cast, 2

Ruthie . . . with never an idle moment! Gay, good-natured, always willing to help someone out, she's the sort of person people tell their troubles to.

CHRISTINE LOUISE DEMING Deanie

"In vain are all the charms I can devise: She hath an art to break them with her eyes."

Glee Club, 4, 3, 2; Lambda Tau Sigma, 4, 3; National Honor Society, 4, 3; Senior Play Committee, 4; Year Book Staff, 4; Junior Prize Speaking, 3; National Forensic League, 3; Dramatics Club, 3

Deanie is always in the center of all activities. At present her "St. Petersburg Tan" is the envy of all who know her. Her fine speaking voice won a third place for her in the State Forensic League Contest and her beautiful singing voice has charmed all who have heard it. Bates, here comes one of our very Best!

EVELYN M. DIGHTON Evie

"Good nature like a bee gathers honey from everywhere."

Glee Club, 3, 2, 1; Musical Review, 4; National Honor Society, 4; Softball, 2; Sophomore Hop, 2; Junior Prom, 3

A smile is often contagious and perhaps it would be well if Evie's good humor would continue with her when she is taking down her shorthand. Studies never bothered Evie. She is one of those intelligent girls whom not even the hardest thing troubles. We were sorry when she deserted us in the middle of the year to take a position in Worcester.

SHIRLEY MAE DUBY Shirl

"Thought, once awakened, does not again slumber."

A.A., 4, 3; Glee Club, 4, 3; Traffic Squad, 4, 3; International Friendship League, 2, 1; Senior Play Cast, 4; Year Book Staff, 4; Sophomore Play, 2

Shirl is always on the spot with a bit of laughter for us all. Her portrayal of a "Grande-Dame" in the Senior Play was excellent. One corner of Room 14 is perpetually in laughter when Shirley is there. Her smile is catching, her spirit—inspiring. Her many friends are proof of her zest for fun and laughter.

EUGENE CHARLES DUDLEY Dud

"Walk softly and carry a big stick."

Crew, 4, 3, 2; Football, 4, 3; Skating Party, 3, 2; Vice-president Senior Class, 4; President, 4; Senior Play Committee, 4; Student Council, 3; Sophomore Play Cast, 2; Sophomore Class Treasurer, 2

Dud's popularity is summarized by the fact that he has served as Class Treasurer, Vice-president, and President. His athletic abilities are displayed in his participation in many scholastic sports. Dud's executive tendencies led him to accept the Class Presidency after Robert Leonard left to serve in the United States Navy.

WILLIE MAE ENGLISH Wendy

"She laughs, because Eternity Blossoms for her with stars."

Softball, 2, 1

Wendy is liked by everyone, because she has a good sense of humor and a strong sense of responsibility. Whatever she says she will do is well-done. She is usually quiet, save when she thrills us with her tinkling laughter. Wendy is particularly fond of rollerskating at the Y.W.C.A. She plans to leave us immediately after graduation to travel south.

DANTE PAUL FEDE Danny

"His friends there are many, His foes—are there any?"

Danny's popularity is attributed to his keen sense of humor and his willingness to cooperate in school. He has shown his great talent for drawing, and he is certain to become a successful draftsman in the Marine Corps. Let's hope his attraction to mischief doesn't make the guard-house his permanent quarters.

MARION CECELIA FIORELLI

"The roar of the world is in my ears.
Thank God for the roar of the world."

A.A., 4, 3, 2, 1; Varsity Hockey, 3, 2; Student Council, 4; Victory Corps, 4, Senior Play Committee, 4; Year Book, 4; Assistant Editor Gazette Staff, 4; National Honor Society, 4; Dramatics Club, 3; Junior Prom Committee, 3; Sophomore Movie Committee, 2; Sophomore Social, 2; Sophomore Hop Committee, 2; Pyramid Staff, 1

Working hard at whatever she undertakes . . . full of fun and pep . . . efficiency plus . . . an infectious laugh and a jolly sense of humor . . . Marion!

BARBARA M. GABREE Babs

"I've got gobs of love for the Navy."

Glee Club, 4, 3, 2; Orchestra, 3, 2; Senior Play, 4; Hockey Team, 3

Babs is one of the quiet, reserved girls in our class; in fact, she's so quiet, you never know when she's about. She's a gal whose friends are many and foes aren't any. Babs is interested in being a nurse (maybe a Navy nurse); but anyway, whether nurse or not, she's Navy-bound.

DORIS T. GARGANIGO Dee

"Better to be short and shine, than tall and cast a shadow."

A.A., 4, 3, 2; Year Book Staff, 4; Sport Dance, 4; Junior Prom, 3; Glee Club, 2

Doris is little, full of fun and wit, having a great personality. She is a sport in all her work. Her pep is boundless and effervescent. For her help in school functions we humbly thank her. Her happy-go-lucky manner will get her far in the future.

EDWARD FREDERICK GAUCHER Ed

"More is thy due, than more than all can pay."

Ed is one of the few who have been able both to work and go to school and still find time for pleasure. His cheerful and quiet disposition has won the respect of all his classmates. If he seems absorbed in school work some study period, don't be fooled; he's only drawing planes.

CHRISTINE H. GHIATIS Teen

"I dreamed I was in love again with the one before the last."

Glee Club, 2, 1; Senior Play Usher, 4; Year Book, 4; Wild Rose Operetta, 1

This artist is talented with her brush and easel. Her ability in art should bring her a delightful avocation. We also know her commercial work will always bring in an income for her. Christine is one of the girls of whom it may be said, "Here today, gone tomorrow." Some day, however, when she has found just the right "situation" we know she will settle down to a life of happiness and art.

HUGH H. HADLEY Hughie

"Mischief is my nature."

Hugh is a very humorous fellow at times, who manages to get into a few little scrapes; but he can always see the serious side of life when it comes to studying. His personality, if nothing else, will help him a lot in future life. We all wonder if there will ever be a school aisle wide enough for him to pass through without bumping the desks.

MARJORIE FRANCES HALL Miggy

"Few are they who do all things well."

Hockey, 4 (Captain), 3, 2; A.A., 4, 3, 2; Traffic Squad, 4 (Captain), 3; National Honor Society, 4 (Secretary), 3; Lambda Tau Sigma, 4, 3; Spy, 4; Victory Corps, 4; Student Council, 4; Assistant Editor Year Book, 4; Senior Play Committee, 4; Selection of Play (Chairman), 4; Beal High Gazette, 4; Usher at Graduation 3; Usher at Junior Prize Speaking, 3; Dramatics, 3; Junior Prom, 3; Essay Contest (1st Prize), 3; Sophomore Hop, 2; Sophomore Social, 2; Softball, 2; Pyramid, 1

Miggy is the subtle humorist of the class. Her words carry a punch. In everything she undertakes she excels.

LAURA B. HASTINGS Lee

"Fairest of all is thee."

A.A., 3, 2; Basketball, 3, 2; Cheerleader, 4; Year Book, 4; National Honor Society, 4; Traffic Squad, 3; Sophomore Hop, 2; Student Council, 2

Blond hair, blue eyes, and a perpetual grin is our Lee. She is an all-round sport, and devotes herself whole-heartedly to everything she undertakes. Lee is our pride on the cheering section. Her promising career began early when she started doing commercial work afternoons at the Bell Company.

NORMAN DAVID HJULSTROM Norman

"It matters not how long we live but how!"

Norman is a quiet fellow, who says little, even in Miss Thelen's room. We wonder at his ability to keep up in school work, always have his homework done, yet be able to work in the afternoons. He is an Air Raid Warden Messenger and has a paper route, which activities undoubtedly use up the remainder of his time. Hard work is its own virtue.

E. LUTHERA HUCKINS Luthie

"A kind heart is the foundation of gladness."

A.A., 4, 3, 2; Glee Club, 3, 2, 1; Senior Play Committee, 4; Year Book Committee, 4; Operetta, 1; Harvest Dance, 4

Luthie has giggled through the years even when she dropped things such as olives. She has a pleasing personality, and we are sure that whatever she plans to do after graduation, she will be a success.

INGRID MARGARET JOHNSON Ing

"A spirit interfused about a thrilling silent life."

A.A., 4, 3, 2, 1; Forensic League, 4, 3, 2; Lambda Tau Sigma, 4, 3; Junior Prom, 3; Dramatics Club, 3; Junior Prize Speaking, 3; Sophomore Play Cast, 2; Freshman Prize Speaking, 1

Any day Ing may be seen making the trek to the mailbox to receive those "keep-up-the-morale-of-the-sailors" letters. She has a very artistic temperament and possesses dramatic ability, as proved by her work in Forensic League and Junior Prize Speaking. Our only regret is that we have not seen enough of her, this past year, to become sufficiently acquainted with her.

MALCOLM FRANCIS JOHNSON Mal

"The secret of success is constancy of purpose."

Crew, 2, 1; Football, 4; Senior Play Committee, 4; Junior Prom Committee, 3; Sophomore Play, 2; Sophomore Hop, 2

Mal is forever puttering with radios and asking us if we're sure ours doesn't need fixing. He is willing to share his latest quip with unsuspecting victims; so watch out. We hear he has a talent for "beating it out," but we can't imagine why he hides it. If you want a lecture on the fine points of Aeronautics, Mally's your man.

DOROTHY EUNICE JUDSON Dot

"A quiet mind was hers, filled with formulas, theories, and fractions."

Victory Corps, 4; Traffic Squad, 4; A.A., 4; Year Book Staff, 4; Senior Play Committee, 4; National Honor Society, 4; Dramatics, 3; Usher at Graduation, 3; Usher at Junior Prize Speaking, 3

Dorothy's charm is her outstanding virtue. She has a smile and a humorous word for everyone. Her persistence in the realm of mathematics shows clearly her determination in life. Our hats are off to you—who hold your own in classes of men to become a figure in the world of numbers.

STANLEY B. KAIZER Casey

"This the mind that makes the body rich."

Casey is one of our very few quiet boys. Stan is, however, very willing to debate with anyone who would dare challenge his statements. His high scholastic standing indicates that he is a studious and industrious chap who will undoubtedly follow a successful career.

PAULINE F. KERSHAW Polly

"Coast Guard forever!"

Traffic, 4, 3; A.A., 3, 2; Softball, 2, 1; Year Book, 4; Junior Prom, 3; Sophomore Party, 2; Student Council, 2

Polly has a lure for the sea which at times she can't conceal. Yet she manages to receive good grades in all her studies. Her giggles have brightened up many English classes. Polly has her special plans for the future. Who knows, she might be a nurse in a Coast Guard hospital.

FLORENCE EMMA KLINE Flossie

"Merry and gay, let care flit away."

A.A., 4, 3, 2, 1; Cheering, 4, 3; Glee Club, 3, 2; Basketball, 3, 2; Year Book Staff, 4; Junior Prom, 3; Musical Revue, 3; Sophomore Hop, 2

Flossie is never without a charming smile. She is wise, witty and cheerful. Her willingness to help and her winning personality have been outstanding. She has been one of our cheerleaders for the past two years. Flossie has a serious side as well, and we all know she will rank high in her chosen field of endeavor.

CHARLES H. KOTSEAS Charlie

"The world's one happy merry-go-round."

A.A., 4, 3, 2, 1; Football, 4; Baseball, 4

Charlie's devil-may-care attitude and his witty humor have caused the teachers many a gray hair; but, when it comes to studies, he always puts business before pleasure. His captivating smile and expressive eyes fascinate all the girls. We know that Charlie will always be popular wherever he goes.

PAUL E. LANGILL Paulie

"It is a rough road that leads to the heights of greatness."

Here is a lad of whom we can boast. He earned his award of Eagle Scout through patience and hard work. He was a very distinguished English butler in our Senior play, "Peg O' My Heart." If he should enter the Navy, his strong will will assure his rapid advancement.

ROBERT M. LEONARD Bob

"This day we fashion Destiny; our web of Fate we spin."

A.A., 4, 3, 2, 1; Crew, 4, 3, 2, 1; Football, 4, 3; Class Vice-president, 3, 2; Class President, 4; Junior Prom, 3; Movie Committee, 3; Sophomore Hop, 2

It disturbed us to have the Navy take our class President. He is a good leader, an energetic worker, and has a quick tongue. Let's hope his desire to leave school for greener fields at any hour will not follow him to the Navy, for Miss Drinkwine will catch him, you may be sure!

KENNETH JOSEPH LEVESQUE Ken

"The labor we delight in physics pain."

Ken is one of those few quiet fellows that a teacher likes to work with. He has never been known to have an argument and he doesn't know what a grudge is. He has gained the respect and admiration of all who know him. We can't seem to find any women in his life, but we know there must be some somewhere.

JANIE CAROL LITSTER Carol

"There will always be an England."

Year Book Committee, 4; Senior Play Committee, 4; Victory Corps, 4; Lambda Tau Sigma, 4; Usher at Junior Prize Speaking, 3; Usher at Graduation, 3

Carol came to us from England in her sophomore year. Her scintillating charm has won the friendship of all who know her. Because of her cosmopolitan manner and sincerity, we consider her envoy extraordinary.

OLGA PENELOPE MAMONAS Olga

"How poor are they who have not patience."

Victory Corps, 4; Senior Play Committee, 4; Year Book Staff, 4; A.A., 4; Traffic Squad, 4; National Honor Society, 4; Usher at Graduation, 3; Dramatics, 3

"May we borrow your history notebook, Olga?" With a tolerant, patient smile, Olga is always willing to lend us last-minute crammers her neatly done work. We should have been lost without her willingness to help us, not only in studies, but in social activities also. To her and her work, we humbly say, "Well done!"

GENEVIEVE ELIZABETH McCARTHY Vivi

"They that stand high must have many blasts."

A.A., 4, 3, 2; Glee Club, 3, 2; Year Book, 4; Victory Corps, 4; Junior Prom, 3; Sophomore Social, 2

Vivi has a quick tongue and loves a joke. Her knowledge of events of the day and history astound us no end. If we're ill at any time, we'll call on Vivi to nurse us back to health and entertain us with her humor. Her artistic ability reigns in her notebooks which are the envy of everyone who labors and toils just to have his complete.

MILDRED A. McKUZES Millie

"A heart that's true!"

A.A., 3, 2; Glee Club, 3, 2; Year Book Committee, 4; Junior Prom Committee, 3; Musical Revue, 3; Sophomore Hop Committee, 2; Traffic Squad, 1

Little and demure, Millie has made many friends at Shrewsbury High through her pleasant smile and willingness to help. Swimming, skating, and ? (Paul) are her favorite pastimes. She may seem quiet, but she has a sense of humor too and enjoys an occasional joke.

WILLIAM MASTRO, JR. Bill

"He will give the devil his due."

Senior Play Committee, 4

Bill is good-natured and full of fun. He has his own formula for success, "Hard work is its own reward." He is a good worker in class, but after school he finds time for amusement. With his fine character, he will surely accomplish anything he sets out to do.

HENRY GEORGE MOGENSEN, JR. Moe

"Many words won't fill a bushel."

Traffic Squad, 4, 3; School Paper, 4, 3; Senior Play Cast, 4; Debating Club, 3

Moe's journalistic leanings have raised him to be Editor-in-chief of our thriving school paper, the Beal High Gazette. His natural instinct to argue and talk have gained him membershp in the Forensic League—through debating. On the stage, undoubtedly he has Clark Gable's technique. Moe will be remembered by all who saw him play the hero's role in "Peg O' My Heart."

JEAN MULLEN Moon

"All the things you are!"

A.A., 4; Hockey, 3; Basketball, 3; Junior Prom Committee, 3; Sophomore Hop Committee, 2; Glee Club

If Jean laughs, everyone laughs; for her laugh is very infectious. We have never had a dull moment when Jean has been around, and her absence could easily be felt. Moon keeps up the morale of the Marines as well as the home front. Her neatness and happy-go-lucky personality are bound to give her a boost to the top of her ladder.

CHARLES HENRY NOBLE Charlie

"Today he follows; tomorrow he leads."

Charlie, with his ever-present smile and ability to play the part of Charlie-on-the-spot, has accomplished a great deal during his four years at Shrewsbury High School. His practical and business-like character will certainly prove a valuable asset in the future. It is our wish that he may always have one of those large desks (one of which he has graced this year) that the rest of us could have used so often.

CARL STERNER OBERG Carly

"I try my best to think of something really bad to do."

Crew, 4, 3; Hi Y, 4; Year Book Staff, 4

Carly has both coxed and rowed on our famous Shrewsbury crew for the past three years. His "Toothpaste" smile and wavy brown hair bring to him the good graces of his many female acquaintances. His air of complete surprise when he is questioned about participation in some prank is matched only by the hurt haste with which he disavows all interest. Put him in charge of Room 14 and listen to the silence!

ROSA BELLE O'BRIEN Rosa

"A cheery heart goes all the way."

A.A., 4, 3, 2, 1; Basketball, 4, 3; Traffic Squad, 4, 3; Lambda Tau, 4, 3; Year Book Staff, 4; Swing Shift Dance, 4; Junior Prom, 3; Sophomore Hop, 2

Rosa has always been ready to help the class when they needed her. Her laughing eyes and friendly smile portray her sparkling personality. Rosa's advertising posters for our activities have brought us much trade from the admiring public.

PAUL FRANCIS PADDOCK Paddy

"I would walk through fire and water for such a beautiful face."

A.A., 4, 3, 2; Crew, 4, 3, 2; Hi Y, 4

Paul's shy nature at times betrays him, especially if someone mentions bands and orchestras. His enthusiasm for swing music is outdone by none. His curly, blond hair is the envy of every gal in school—and the boys, too, of course. Paul's sincerity in studies, smiles and speech have won for him countless friends everywhere.

PHYLLIS E. PLAISANCE Phil

"New views to greet you at each hill's crest, Color and beauty wherever you go."

Year Book Staff, 4; Glee Club, 4; Hockey, 3

Phil . . . a conscientious individual, sunny of disposition . . . possessing an infectious laugh . . . captivating sense of humor . . . always has a finger in the pie, literally, for Phil is one of Mrs. Fipphen's helpers.

RITA HELEN RANO Ree

"She who reads may some day wish to write."

A.A., 4, 3, 2, 1; Hockey, 4, 3, 2; Glee Club, 3, 2, 1; Gazette, 3, 2; Dramatics, 4; Year Book Staff, 4; Victory Corps, 4; Debating, 4; Christmas Play, 4; Pyramid, 1

There is never a dull moment with Rita around, for she radiates "pep" with her vivacious smile and sparkling personality. With her ability and determination she will climb high on the ladder of success.

DONALD FULTON RICKER Tick

"Enjoy life today, for tomorrow may never come."

Basketball, 3, 2, 1; Baseball, 3, 2, 1; Banquet Committee, 4; Year Book, 4; Senior Play, 4; Dramatics Club, 3; Junior Prom, 3; Sophomore Hop, 2; Sophomore Play, 2

Tick is one of the most valuable assets of our Senior Class, for without him humor and mischief would be rare. He brings out the Satanic in the best of us whenever he chooses. If you should see him walking the streets at any time, ask him how his Aeronautics homework is progressing. If he's running along the street, he's on the way to a fire.

LOIS CHARLOTTE ROSENE Lo

"Let me be what I am; seek not to alter me."

A.A., 4, 3, 2, 1; Traffic Squad, 4, 3; National Honor Society, 4, 3; Year Book Staff, 4; Victory Corps, 4; Senior Play Committee, 4; Junior Prom Committee, 4; Junior Prize Speaking (1st Prize), 3; Forensic League, 3; Dramatics, 3; Usher at Graduation and Class Day, 3; Sophomore Social, 2; Sophomore Hop, 2

Lo is an enthusastic skier and as far as we have been able to make out, just as enthusiastic a "he-er." A constant repeater on the honor roll and blessed with a glib tongue, she is sure to make her mark in the Latin-American world. Her flair for sketching and painting "pin-ups" has proved a joy.

SHIRLEY ISABEL RYDER Shirl

"Quiet, reserved, and sweet is the maiden."

Glee Club, 2, 1; Year Book, 4; Lambda Tau Sigma, 4; Dramatics Club, 3; Junior Prom, 3; Sophomore Hop, 2

A mixture of seriousness and mirth make up Shirl. We know that even though she is quiet and devotes the greater part of her time to a Marine, she does participate in clubs and other school activities. Shirl has special plans for the years to come. The word "success" is yours.

LILLIAN M. SCIRPOLI Skip

"Little, wise, and witty."

To see Skip in a serious mood is very rare. Lillian's sayings have brought many laughs to our class, but when it comes to problems of the heart she keeps mum. How about that soldier, Lill? Shall we ever know the real story?

BEVERLY BURTON SHAW Billie

"A cheerful countenance betokens a good heart."

A.A., 3, 2, 1; Traffic Squad, 4, 3; Forensic League, 3, 2; Glee Club, 2, 1; Flower Committee, 4; Movie Committee, 4; Year Book Staff, 4; Senior Play Cast, 4; Dramatics Club, 3; Prize Speaking, 3; Operetta Usher, 3; Junior Prom Committee, 3; Sophomore Hop Committee, 2

Intent on the finer things in life, Billie is noted for clearing the hurdles—high, low and medium. For her splendid performance in the Senior play, "Peg" deserves high praise. Ride high, Billie, ride high!

B. ALDEN SIMONE Blackie

"I want to go wandering.
Who shall declare I will regret if I fare?"

A.A., 4, 3, 2; Football, 4, 3, 2; Baseball, 4, 3, 2; Basketball Manager, 4

Blackie is one of the most popular boys in our class. He has participated in sports throughout his high school career and was the co-captain of the football team and captain of the baseball team. His black, curly hair and dark eyes are supplements to his personal charm.

"Happiness is a thing called Joe."

Orchestra, 4, 3, 2, 1; A.A., 3, 2, 1; Traffic, 4, 3; Lambda Tau Sigma, 4, 3; Glee Club, 3; Dramatics, 3; Musical Revue, 3

Evelyn's quiet way and demure manner have endeared her to all. Although she is rather a quiet girl, she has expressed herself well with her musical fingers. The concensus of opinion seems to be that she will enter either the commercial or matrimonial field. We wish her all the success in the world in either enterprise.

CARLETON WHITTEMORE SPRAGUE Carly

"The corn is green."

Crew, 4, 3, 2, 1

He of the lofty tongue—God's gift to Miss Churchill's intellectual discussions—a prodigious scholar, Carleton is aiming for the Technical World; and, considering that he is quite a mathematician, there is no doubt he will be successful. His sharp wit has produced many a pun. Where the corn originated, we'll never know.

RICHARD R. STONE Dash

"In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love."

Beal High Gazette, 4, 3; Year Book, 4; Junior Prom, 3; Sophomore Hop, 2; Sophomore Skating Party, 2; Baseball, 1

Dash has been active in planning nearly all our social activities in which girls have been involved. His journalistic interests have brought him to a position on the school paper and Year Book. If you see a great brown car flash by, be not alarmed; it is only Dash, living up to his nickname.

BARBARA PHYLLIS THOMAS Chick

"Sincerity is the grace of her soul."

Year Book, 4; National Honor Society, 4

Barbara is another of the brilliant girls in our class. Although she has not taken part in many activities, she has had the high marks which we would all like to have. Never once has she been caught without her homework, as so many of us are. May success and happiness follow you through life, as your light touch on the typewriter has through high school.

RICHARD C. TISDELL Tizzy

"The pleasing punishment that women bear."

Richard is in his glory if there's an argument around for him to enter. Occasionally, he finds time from his informal debates to read from Milton and Shakespeare. Texas' gain will be our loss when Rich leaves for the wide open spaces. Baseball, too, will lose a swell catcher from the team. Room 14 will miss him, won't we, girls (and Carleton)?

SHYRLEY VAN HORN Van

"Imp of Satan!"

A.A., 4; Year Book Staff, 4; Senior Play Committee, 4; Victory Corps, 4

Van, a jovial and frank nature, always puts herself in the center of things. Her witty remarks surpass any other attempts at humor. In the few short months she has been with us Van has made a friend of everyone, a friendship well worth having!

MARIAN E. WARREN Clem

"Her ways are ways of pleasantness."

A.A., 4, 3, 2, 1; Cheerleader, 4, 3, 2; Basketball, 4, 3, 2; Lambda Tau Sigma, 4, 3, 2; Orchestra, 3, 2, 1; Student Council, 3, 2; Glee Club, 2, 1; Senior Play, 4; Class Secretary, 4; National Honor Society, 4; Junior Prom, 3; Sophomore Hop, 2

Although she does not care to be called "Stretch," her height was her fortune in our basketball team. She certainly managed to keep up our school spirit when she was our cheerleader. Marian is an all-round girl and liked by everyone.

VIRGINIA MAE WASHBURN Pinkey

"Knowledge is power."

A.A., 4, 3, 2, 1; Dramatics, 4; Year Book Staff, 4; Usher Senior Play, 4; Banquet Committee, 4; Stage Committee, 4; Dramatics Play, 4; Debating Team, 4; Victory Corps, 4; Musical Revue, 3; Student Council, 3; Hockey, 3, 2; Glee Club, 3, 2, 1; Pyramid, 1

Pinkey's blonde hair, blue eyes, and delightful smile spell personality. She is a little bit independent, and an individualist in her opinions. She can intelligently discuss problems, both political and legal. We all think that she is destined to become a great lawyer or politician.

SHIRLEY WAY Shirl

"What a piece of work is (my) man, the beauty of this world."

Traffic Squad, 4; Year Book Staff, 4; Senior Play Cast, 4; Victory Corps, 4; Class Flower Committee, 4; National Honor Society, 4; Dramatics Club, 3; Operetta, 1

Shirl—vivacious and gay in disposition . . . does her work dutifully . . . contagious of giggle . . . enjoying the sea and all "things" nautical—takes life as it comes, and doesn't worry much about anything. Her collection of photographs of army personnel would form a new regiment all its own.

CALVIN EMERSON WHITE Cal

"A well-timed silence hath more eloquence than speech."

Cal is a great lover of aeronautics. We hope he will be able to further his knowledge of planes. He is conscientious in all his undertakings. He has had two possessions which have made him the envy of his less fortunate classmates—his man-size desk in home-room and his four-man Ford.

JOHN R. WHITE Jack

"Life is what you make it."

Jack is another of our quiet and industrious classmates. He believes in more studying and less fooling during classes; but life is not all serious to him, as at the proper time and place his humor can be most amusing.

RUTH WORSDELL Rut

"I hunger for the sea's edge, the limits of the land, Where the wild old Atlantic is shouting on the sand."

Orchestra, 4, 3, 2; A.A., 4, 3; Lambda Tau Sigma, 4, 3; Basketball Team, 4, 3; National Honor Society, 4, 3; Student Council, 4; Senior Play Committee, 4; Victory Corps, 4; Year Book Staff, 4

Rut—completely sincere . . . captivating of smile . . . full of fun—contributes much in serious and clear thinking, worries about everything but never fails to come through.

THOMAS J. YACUZZI Tommy

"He missed the medieval grace of iron clothing."

A.A., 4, 3, 2, 1; Co-captain Football Team, 4, 3, 2; Baseball, 4, 3, 2; Basketball, 4, 3; Senior Dance Committee, 4; Senior Movie Committee, 4

Touchdown Tommy has gained the admiration of all his classmates because of his ability on the football field. His winning ways and charming smile make him a vibrant personality. Tommy will certainly be a great asset to the college that is lucky enough to receive him.

VICTOR J. ZONA Vickie

"It matters not how long we live, but how."

A.A., 4, 3, 2, 1; Baseball, 4, 3, 2; Basketball, 3, 2; Basketball Captain, 4; Co-captain Football Team, 4; Year Book Staff, 4; Junior Prom Committee, 3

Vickie's high-school years have spelled "success." He has excelled in sports, having been co-captain of the football team and captain of the basketball team. He is regarded by his friends and classmates as a good sport.

CLASS SONG

Words - Rosa O'Brien
Tune - "America The Beautiful"

Our happy high school days are o'er;
Each heart is sad today,
As to our friends and teachers too,
We bid a fond adieu.
Oh! Shrewsbury High, dear Shrewsbury High,
We love thy sacred walls,
Where in our youth we learned from thee,
The ways of Liberty.

To thee we sing a humn of praise,
On this our festal day,
Our inspiration, guide, and strength
Through all our future days.
Oh! Shrewsbury High, thy memory dear,
Will live throughout the years
And urge us on to sure success,
As on, our footsteps press.

So now with tender thoughts of thee
On this last gladsome day,
To teachers and our parents true,
Our grateful homage raise.
Oh! Shrewsbury High, dear Shrewsbury High,
God keep thee through the years;
And to thy name, with loud acclaim,
Thy ranks bring lasting fame.

Class History

Evening shadows were lengthening one dreary September afternoon in 1939, when anyone on the main street of the little town of Shrewsbury might have seen a group of children hurrying towards a small, mysterious white building. Anyone might have read on the battered shingle hanging over the sagging door, "Madame Yuanita—Crystal Gazing." The children paused, half as though they had thought better of their weird adventure; then, urged to bravery by a short boy with a loud voice, a born politician, ventured timidly in. Shrunk in a corner sat a dowdily-dressed woman with a mammoth crystal ball before her. All the intruders began to chatter at once, but the babble subsided in deflated silence when Madame Yuanita first raised an admonishing arm, then began to groan in incoherent monosyllables. Finally words emerged from the jargon:

"You must be freshmen from Major Beal High School. I see the fringe of innocent greenery around your brows. Only such naiveté could start a career on a capital of $23.25. I will tell your fortunes on condition that each of you will skip school one day each year for my sake. Those who do not wish to leave may let little Thomas Brooks have their days.

"During your first year, you will be submerged — forgotten men — a lost tribe. No advisers! No activities—save those you make yourselves, probably more than enough for your teachers. I see a contest. I see the winners." She pointed a long finger first at Bette Breslin, second at Ingrid Johnson, and third at Richard Corey. "Don't cry children. The prizes will be silver to cross my old palm." The dull room brightened. The old hag's words came more distinctly.

"Ah! The crystal picture brightens. Good! Another year! The forgotten race is remembered at last. I see six people being applauded by many others. I hear their names: Alfred Roy, president; Robert Leonard, vice-president; Eleanor Davison and Eugene Dudley, the secretary and the treasurer. I see two guardian spirits, who will be near you all your school days, Miss Prouty and Miss Copeland. I see people, lights, money, dancing, games, food—in short, a party. Foolish children to use good silver on a party! What is this? Watch out—! Here is a small animal, a 'varmit' I vow, pocketing a pack of cards. Look, a school banner flies away in thin air! I see a lake and a home by a lake. Here is Ruth Deering giving a skating party. Each one carries a bag containing food, but I see money bags opening. Your class treasury supplies hot chocolate. Here is ill luck. One little lady is falling. She hurts her knee. Now Doctor Deering comes to the rescue. Ah-hah! I see a group of sophomore boys skating up the lake with a certain miss—to insure her safe return home no doubt! What is all this? A stage, a curtain, a play, 'Bill of Fare.' I see a director in difficulty as Miss Johanson searches for a cast. I see sophomores placing second in competition with seniors and juniors. I see a rush for Howard Johnson's. I see an abrupt exit. All the year you will wait eagerly for a great event—the Sophomore Hop. Fasten the decorations tightly to the wall. Souvenir hunters will be your only trouble. I see money flow into the treasury.

"Time passes. Another year rolls around. The crystal glows brighter and brighter. I see six persons again. They are the same as before, except that I see a certain Donald Ricker as treasurer. Juniors now, your first activity will be something on wheels—a roller-skating party. Four persons merrily skating along suddenly take a worm's view of life and still skate on their posteriors. A graceful young lady, skating along with the wind, is suddenly in or on, parts unknown. What? Another contest? In Junior Prize Speaking I see Lois Rosene win first; Richard Corey, second; and Bette Breslin, honorable mention. I see more silver. Use it well! I see the former junior classes bowing in shame to you. You will give the most beautiful prom ever staged, which, by its beautiful South American atmosphere, will lead to many a beautiful friendship. Don't worry, decoration committee, the ceiling will not fall. I see Marion Fiorelli mopping up punch with a 'Donway Special.' I see a tall light man taking moving pictures. I see that Miss Copeland has lost her year-old dollar bet with Thomas Brooks that he will fail to keep his back seat all the year. Will she pay up?

"The crystal is too bright now for my old eyes. Another year, another election, the last for you. War clouds loom in the distance. Bob Leonard will be president; Eugene Dudley, vice-president; Marian Warren and Russell Perkins the secretary and the treasurer. You will never believe this, but the navy will call your president and your treasurer to war. May the boys have all the luck in the world. Dudley will be president; and, how careless you are with your money, you will have no treasurer. I see a Swing Shift dance, which will swing and shift from date to date, while it shifts the responsibility for getting dancing partners to—the girls. Again a stage appears. Many hidden talents will creep forth. No cast, no directors, scarlet fever—you will struggle, but your success will compensate for your trouble. A cast will emerge; directors, Miss Lothrop and Mrs. Hamel, the tall and the short of it, will appear. Scarlet Fever will lift its ugly mask at last, for 'the play must go on.' I told you so. Your treasury looks low, and, with all you earned too. Prices have risen; priorities block your progress. So—you decide to have a movie one afternoon and a dance the same evening, a Sport Dance. You will have time that day to dress, I hope, in sport clothes; but sport decorations will be missing. Your treasury will swell, but not your heads I hope. Your final 'big time' will be a banquet for the class only in the Crystal Room (but not my crystal) at the Bancroft Hotel. Since you have always started something new and thrown out the old, you will finish by eliminating class day and saying 'On with the dance.'

"Now," she advanced on the trembling but excited children, seeming to fill the room with her power and presence, "go forth and prove my predictions true."

And we went and we found all we had heard to be truth and gospel to this last day.

Shirley Duby,

Class Historian

Class Will

We, the ancient and rheumatic seniors, being partially sane and almost awake, have drawn up this document as our last will and testament before we are whittled down again to the rank of insignificant Freshmen in life.

To Mr. Sturtevant we leave an autogiro attachment for his Studebaker to enable him to take off and alight on the hockey field!

To Mr. Cooke we present a toupee to replace all the hairs we've worried out of his head.

To Miss Thelen, Miss Lothrop, Mrs. Hamel, Miss Mulholland of the English department, and especially to Miss Churchill we leave moth balls to preserve the thesauri of "Classics" and, "Double double, toil and trouble!" the prized Macbeth records.

To the science and math departments, including Mr. Cooke, Miss Copeland, Mr. Keck, Miss Malone, and Miss Samuelson, we leave an answer book with ball and chain, so that they may never get stuck "holding the bag."

To the commercial teachers, Miss Nelson and Miss Donelan, we leave Harry James' orchestra so that their classes may "type to rhythm" without grumbling, and to Miss Shea, a shingle to hang out for her employment agency.

To Mr. Keck goes a brand-new ruler so he can measure—"as far as you're concerned."

To Mrs. Ferguson we leave waterproof shoes, so that the H_2O from the showers won't "hydrate" them too profusely in the future.

To Coach Bergstrom we leave a team of "man mountains," so that our boys won't be trampled on by brutes!

To Mrs. Fipphen we leave Chef Boyardi and skilled connoiseurs of hash!

We dedicate to Mr. Bowker a "John Power's Model" for the pursuit of his happiness.

To Miss Titcomb we dedicate a soundproof blackboard, so that the blows of her violent hand won't be broadcast in Room 11 every time it "strikes home" on the I's and T's.

To Mrs. Bell goes a bazooka and a yo-yo to supplement her orchestra for which we have recently renamed our auditorium, Carnegie Hall.

To Mr. Carr we leave a two-sided brush, one side for the floor—the other, for the tables!

To Miss Ford and Miss Drinkwine a two-headed gremlin, one to look for measles, the other for the frequent absentees.

To Mrs. Tosi we leave three capable substitutes to efficiently carry on her work during any future absence. We sincerely hope that the outcome of Miss Gummer's recent Southern trips in connection with the Massachusetts School's Secretary Association will result as favorably as Mrs. Tosi's did.

To the pupils in general we pass on a set of weary but eager teachers.

To the present seventh graders we leave a spur—the wonderful fact that they will no longer be the youngest in the building.

To the incoming members of 15's history classes, we do not leave Miss Sawin's weekly pre-tests, having decided to take them with us and spare our successors the mental torture involved.

The senior class presents gilt-edged invitations to dance at noon to every boy in the school! If they do dance, we'll paint flowers on the wall to take their place. If wall-flowers have gender, they're all males at S.H.S.

Tick "I can bluff through anything" Ricker, abandons his futile attempts to acquire Miss Churchill's amazing vocabulary. Anyone wishing to take up where he left off, may do so with our blessings.

The seniors generously donate their brain cell to be divided among the freshmen, sophomores, and juniors.

The original (after having read Mademoiselle) senior girls, bequeath their bow ties to the Sophomores.

To the juniors we leave our unpurchased class trip tickets!

Eight senior girls leave to Room 14 full bridge equipment and a permanent set of cards to be found in the second drawer, left side. (A word to the wise—please profit by our experience and never take the cards into room 8 and other unmentionable places.)

We advise all the junior boys interested, to absorb and remember the finesse employed by Dick Tisdell in keeping his "night life" a secret for so long.

Dick Stone and Dick Cutting donate the Cadillac and Packard respectively, dents and all!

Carleton Sprague leaves for the Naval Air Corps, with a gremlin on each arm.

Mo "I slay the women" Mogensen wills his technique to Veronica "I slay them too" Reynolds.

Genevieve McCarthy hands down her poetic prowess to Betty Cook.

Charlie Kotseas leaves his "cookie duster" to someone who wants one o' them things.

Jean Mullen leaves Helen!

Carlie Oberg bestows upon "Beano" Larson his "I didn't do it" look.

Eugene "I walk softly and carry a big stick" Dudley's hesitation goes to Kenneth Morey, who is always rushing into things.

Richard Corey wills his National Honor Society distinction as an inspiration to all the masculine aspirants to that high and honorable position.

Kotseas and Simone give their honorable positions of chief gong ringer and chief score keeper to Lerner, who we are sure is capable of handling both at the same time.

Luthera Huckins donates a jar of olives to next year's Cafeteria Management class.

Eleanor Davison hastily drops her drag with Mr. Cooke to Bob Doyle, who needs something to grease the slide!

Marion Cadieux leaves her flashily dressed exterior appearance to the darkness.

Nan Anderson leaves her ability to "tickle the ivories" to Marjorie Zecher.

Bob Leonard leaves a year or two of his line to Merrill Bergstrom.

Calvin White leaves his "jinricksha" to the scrap drive.

Shyrley Van Horn leaves her book of wise cracks to the highest bidder.

Doris Garganigo leaves her arguments to anyone who can find a person like Rosa O'Brien to argue with.

Carol Litster leaves . . . to return with the Fall leaves!

Miggie Hall's "eyelash batting average" goes to any junior who is blessed with curly lashes.

Betty Dean comes late and leaves early!

Tommy Yacuzzi just leaves . . . he hopes!

Thus we conclude our last will and testament, signed, sealed, declared and published by the above mentioned class of 1943 on the fifth month, twenty-first day, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three. As witness to this document we do subscribe our names in each others presence.

Class Prophecy

Colleges do it; prep schools do it; other high schools do it . . . so we dood it!

We, possessing unusual talent and astounding psychic powers, and being official Crystal Gazers for the Class of '43, do hereby submit our prediction of the fate of our class members ten years hence. Any resemblance to existing conditions at said date is purely accidental, and any resemblance to characters living or dead is purely incidental.

Let's make our starting post the Central Park Zoo; dressed in a "monkey-suit," is Paul Langillo. He is playing the accordion and passing a cup. Plodding around and searching for the Fountain of Youth is that misogynist Hugh Hadley. Robert Anderson is very much concerned about the price of peanuts, which is one cent per bag, nine cents tax. "Fraulein" Kershaw is at the toy airplane counter being blitzkrieged by a mob of Johnny Zeros wanting to buy miniature luftwaffes. Dante Fede, in the moneky-tender's shoes, is approached by a man surrounded by a bunch of kids, who says, "I'll flip you for anything you've got." Calvin White, while trying to build a better mouse-trap, connected with the object of his invention and is hot-footing it to the First Aid Station. Marion Cadieux, lady lion-tamer, is forcing a pack of wolves back into a cage. "Birds" Birnie, keeper of the pigeon coop, is looking like the last of the Four Roses over the loss of his homing pigeons, which were engaged in a badminton game over Virginia. Selling grinders in a loud booming voice that can be heard from Memphis to St. Jo, is Jack White. The grinders are his own concoction—ground glass being the chief ingredient. Over at the East entrance is C-mor Simone selling Norden bomb-sights, two for a nickel, since he washed out of the Bombardier's School. "Ketchem" Kotseas, F.B.I. agent, is hot on the trail with a loudly baying bloodhound, a lie detector, and a water pistol. Will Simone be caught or will be escape? The Good Humor man is "Eskimo Pie" Van Horn, selling ersatz popsicles.

Now we peek in upon Hjulstrom's Happy Hour Night Club, open 28 hours a day and serving smorgosbords. Levesque's herd of "ox" supplies the tail, which is the third ingredient in the Happy Hour soup course, the other two being H_2O and potassium chloride. The faint jingle jangle jingle in the background is explained by "Horatio Boomer" Gaucher, emcee. It is Jukebox Saturday Night at the mercy of Maestro Mastro's orchestra, which he organized when someone handed him a violin for neglecting too long to get his ears moved down. He is here after a twenty-six weeks run at Carnegie Hall, where he played "the best tunes of all."

In the violin section are a calliope, pumped by Barbara Gabree, a bagpipe, blown by Carol Litster, a harp plinked by Ingrid Johnson, who is still pulling strings, and a comb-and-tissue paper, played by Claire Bird, which gets the bird. Doris Garganigo saws away at a bass viol with a saw and Shirley Ryder beats boogie-woogie on her tom-toms while Millie McKuzes affords competition as the sweet potato piper. When they play "Beat Me Daddy" it's the cue for them to make a z-line for the bar, presided over by Dick Cutting, connoisseur of culinary concoctions.

Now for our globe-trotters! Bob Leonard, a wolf in ship's clothing, is stationed in Alaska. As a sideline, he sells suntan lotion to the Eskimos. A feudin' in the Kentucky mountains are the ancient rivals, Carleton Hatfield and "Tizzy" McCoy, engaged in throwing fire-balls onto each other's roofs.

Two high pressure salesmen out West are "Tick" Ricker and "Dash" Stone. "Tick" is selling T.D.'s to Indians on the Kickapoo Reservation. Them Indians has the craziest pipe dreams. "Dash" has tapped the new transcontinental pipe line and sells jeep juice at his station in the desert.

At a solitary lighthouse in the Gobi Desert is Christine Deming, keeping her lonely vigil for ships of the desert.

Miss Shirley Duby, Secretary to the secretary to the secretary to the Third Vice-president's nephew, is still looking for a room in Washington, D.C.

Shirley Way flits around as a sky-scraper nightlark in the Empire State Building where Florence Kline has her head in the clouds as chief window-washer.

Mal Johnson, super-salesman, sells bobby pins to the head-hunters on Guadalcanal. Johnson rules the WAVES.

Willie May English conducts a lucrative business selling Rochester-modeled zoot suits in Harlem.

Gordon Huckins is still a private private in the Army. He is thinking seriously of going A.W.O.L. to raise razorbacks hawgs in the Ozark Mountains.

The cry of "Timberrrrrr" that reechoes through the Great North Woods stems from the greatest lady-lumberjack in the world, Genevieve McCarthy, who works with the wind and the rain in her hair.

Now we switch to a neighboring institution. Tommy Yacuzzi, the establishment's biggest catch, daily practices that 80-yard dash to the fifty-foot wall, with his keeper, Vic Zona, hot on his trail. Tom never loses hope. Inside the institution's hallowed walls sits Tommy Brooks, being treated by Doris Adams for a G.I. haircut, which she thinks is a fractured skull, but which is really a result of Oberg's cutting-up as a barber. Professor Kaizer sitts allllll day in the laboratory splitting hairs. Something new has been added to this happy little family on the hill in the person of Marion Fiorelli who has never escaped since the time she came to talk to Joe and now constantly plays her yo-yo.

Now we explain the "in" in industry. "Nan" Anderson's laundry is attracting customers like flies since she hung out the sign "George Slepington Washed Here." Evelyn Spooner, manager, soaks the customers, not the clothes.

Ruth Worsdell is a vivacious vendor of vanishing cream, which is guaranteed to remove even the face.

Rosa O'Brien is doing a whale of a business with her Rat Extermination Agency. "When the cat's away, the mice (do) play."

Dudley is still handling the dough... in a bakery.

"Stretch" Warren has received great fame for her invention of the stringless tennis racket.

Russell Perkins is the proprietor of the local rat races, where Evelyn Dighton, billboard painter, has just finished the sign, "We cut the rug; you see the floor show."

Christine Ghiatis can't be brushed off easily as she is practising the Fuller-brushgal routine. She is thinking seriously of going into partnership with Gladys Bourbeau, who is selling black-out paint to Rita Rano, conscientious grower of glowworms.

Charlie Noble's black market is doing a rushing business. His meat is the answer to the shoe shortage. "Why use No. 17, when you can make your own for eight points?" he advertises. "That Ol' Black (Market) has him in its spell. The cops keep asking but he won't tell."

Laura Hastings operates as a ghost writer. Her mystery "The Vanishing Spirit of '43" is selling like hot cakes.

Paul Paddock is still hounded by flocks of children seeking his autograph. He received great fame when he dropped a time bomb in Fujiyama, which caused, by its tremendous eruption, the annihilation of the Japanese race. The dust is still making beautiful yellow sunsets.

Olga Mamonas runs a "reducatorium." Her best formula for exercise is jumping at conclusions.

Henry Mogensen is pin-up boy for the WAAC Training Center at Des Moines.

As a more enterprising enterprise he runs a glue factory, for which Beverly Shaw supplies the raw materials. Bets on Billie's nags may be placed by going into "Moon" Mullen's Funny-book Store and asking for Joe.

Betty Dean may be seen, coming in on a wing and a prayer and a gremlin, almost any day at LaGuardia Field.

Ruth Deering broadcasts on all 98 kilocycles, advertising her electric fan, with a slogan, "It's a good wind that blows nobody ill."

Phyllis Plaisance, soprano, and Lillian Scirpoli, bass, are the close harmony twins. One is Eddie, one is Lou.

Now we skip to the Fine Arts Theatre where Ham-on-Rye Corey is demonstrating his technique as Romeo in the part of the same name. Between the first and second acts "Vagabond Violet" Davison entertains with her bubble dance. The audience amuse themselves by throwing antiquated vegetables in her general direction, in spite of point rationing. "Praise the Lord, and Pass the Ammunition"! They repeat the barrage between the second and third acts on Bette Breslin, entertainer deluxe, who recently hit the road to Morocco, and came back with the title Miss Quattara Depression.

Out on the street, "Every night about that time" "Miggie" Hall goes around lighting the lamps. "When the lights go on again all over the world," you'll know who did it.

"Rosene the Riveter" welds well at Lockheed.

"Pinkey" Washburn plays the role of truant officer. She runs 'em down ruthlessly and knows all the hiding places. Intuition? Experience?

Barbara Thomas waits hopefully at Pier 49 at New York harbor. She's muttering incoherently, "I could have sworn this was where they told me to wait for my ship to come in."

Luthera Huckins is the teller of the Third National Bank, where there is a howling mob, consisting of the members of the Class of '43, who are cashing in the War Bonds that they purchased in their senior year.

Prize Speaking

Each year the Woman's Club of Shrewsbury sponsors a prize speaking contest for the members of the Junior Class. Preliminary trials are held first, followed by the contest which usually is held in the spring. An atmosphere of festivity is created by floral stage decorations appropriate to the season and by the formal dress of the participants.

The Class of 1943 gave its presentation of this annual contest with Alfred Roy, the president of the class, presiding. Those taking part and their selections were:

Lois Rosene: An excerpt from "The Women"

Richard Corey: "Interview with an Actor"

Bette Breslin: "Illusion"

Christine Deming: An excerpt from "What Every Woman Knows"

Ingrid Johnson: An excerpt from "The Doll's House"

Beverly Shaw: "An English Lady's Impressions of America"

In the absence of Dr. Edith Jewell Hunter, President of the Woman's Club, Mrs. Robert Goodell, Vice-president, announced the winners to be: First Prize, Lois Rosene; Second Prize, Richard Corey; Honorable Mention, Bette Breslin.

The school orchestra furnished music for the occasion.

Senior Play

On the evening of March 26, 1943, all roads led to Beal High where the stupendous production of the year, "Peg O' My Heart," was being staged under the able direction of Miss Louise Lothrop and Mrs. Elizabeth Hamel. Thus was brought to an end a long, tedious period of anxiety on the part of the cast, directors, and all concerned as to whether or not a play could be produced this year.

"Peg O' My Heart" portrays the tragedy that has befallen the aristocratic Chichester family of England. They have been cut off without a shilling by the failure of a bank and are forced to take under their roof a skeleton in the family closet, Peg (Beverly Shaw), for which they will be recompensed by the terms of the will left by a rich uncle. This was announced by Lawyer Hawkes (Donald Ricker). Their original intentions were to keep Peg very much subjugated, but her "Fighting Irish" blood wouldn't stand for it, and in the period of a month, she had her cousins Ethel (Bette Breslin), and Alaric (Carleton Sprague) on her side. In addition she saved Ethel from running away with Brent (Richard Corey), a married man. The play reached its climax with Peg stealing the heart of Jerry (Henry Mogensen), a friend of the family. Besides the characters already mentioned, Shirley Duby as Mrs. Chichester; Shirley Way, the maid; Paul Langill, the butler; and the two little dogs, "Buttons" and "Midgie," gave performances "magna cum laude."

"Peg O' My Heart" was undoubtedly the most unique play ever produced in Beal High. The setting was the most realistic ever staged and the costumes most appropriate, all of which were made possible by the assistance and cooperation of the various committees and members of the faculty. Orchids to directors, congratulations to the cast, and lamb chops to the dogs!

The National Honor Society was founded in 1920. It was introduced into our school by Miss Isabelle Forsyth, a former teacher, in 1938. Members are chosen twice a year. To become a member a student must be in the upper third of his class and is elected if he has the following four qualities: Leadership, Scholarship, Service, and Character.

The Junior members were inducted into the society at an evening installation on June 2, 1942. The speaker was Capt. C. Julian Wheeler, Professor of Naval Science and Tactics at Holy Cross College. On April 15, 1943, the new Senior members officially entered the organization. The speaker for the occasion was Mr. George Keville, Head of the History Department at Holy Cross College.

Although the Junior members had not been installed before May 30, it was their first duty to decorate the Soldier's Monument for Memorial Day. Before their Junior year ended the members also sponsored a movie for the school.

During the year the society has held two auctions at which lost property was sold to members of the high school. At Christmas, subscriptions to the Readers' Digest were sent to fellow members of the organization who are in the armed forces. In February the members acted as ushers at the Parent-Teacher Association's open house evening. This year the society is also acting as a committee to assist in planning the graduation exercises.

To be a member of the National Honor Society is one of the highest honors this school can confer.

Student Council

The student council has had this year for its main project the establishment and direction of a Victory Corps in the school. This corps is a nationwide organization in high schools and has for its purpose the stimulation of interest in performing community war services and in helping to prepare for future services in the armed forces, war production, and essential civilian occupations. Members are allowed to wear insignia designating the fields in which they are qualified either by training received in school or the services they are now rendering. The five divisions of service are: Air, Land, Sea, Production and Community. To date there are 92 members of this Victory Corps.

The Traffic Squad was first established in the Shrewsbury High School, January 1931, and since has grown to be a necessary part of our daily program. The first group of officers under the captaincy of Thomas Breslin directed the traffic at the lunch hour as well as between classes. The high standard of work accomplished by that first group has been a goal attained by the majority of its successors.

Dramatics Club

The Dramatics Club has been especially active this year. The first public appearance of the group was in a Christmas play, "Letty's Christmas Prodigal," staged for a school assembly. Rita Rano as Letty, and Louis Hubbard as the "Prodigal," Doris Dean and George Ducat as comedy leads were ably supported by the remaining cast.

Early in April the girls of the club presented a program of skits and music for a group of the King's Daughters at the Congregational Church. On the afternoon of May 12 and the evening of May 13, the members of the club produced the delightful comedy, "A Howling Success," an interesting, modern, snappy play. The cast included Doris Hjerpe, Alden Larson, Shirley Martin, George Ducat, Louis Hubbard, Dora Cook, Lucille Mallett, Beverly Johnson, Roger Reynolds, Donald Hawkins, and Janet Fleming. Lorraine Douglass served as stage director and Barbara Lowe as prompter.

The scope of the activities of the club includes debating. This year the debaters have been Dora Cook, Virginia Dand, Donald Hawkins, Alden Larson, Shirley Martin, Rita Rano, and Virginia Washburn. Six debates have been given during the year, four on the National Forensic League subject, Resolved: that a world federal union should be established.

In spite of the enforced curtailment of the Forensic League program, the Dramatics Club aimed to keep alive and stimulate an appreciation of the speech arts in Beal High.

Our illustrious newspaper flourished again this year under a different name—The Spy. We felt the war, too, very keenly as our prize printer, Mr. Baccaro, left to join the Navy. However, after many trials and errors, a printer was found and the paper rolled off the press. The issues have been limited in number because of many conflicting interests and duties of its various chairmen, but the material contributed was very "newsy", which was the aim of its staff.

Henry Mogensen, as editor-in-chief, and Shirley Martin, assistant editor, with the help of the other staff members, very capably "scooped" the news. Financially, however, it must be admitted that the paper failed to reach the standards of other years. Nevertheless, it will be the juicy bits of home-room news and special articles that will be remembered.

The orchestra of Beal High School is an excellent example of what can be accomplished with such major handicaps as few instruments, limited time, and inadequate room. Under the capable direction of Mrs. Dorothy Bell, often assisted by Mr. Keck's trombone, the orchestra has showed the results of faithful rehearsals. Peppy, tuneful music has been amplified via the ventilating system to many appreciative rooms. The orchestra has been ever on call for various occasions which include prize speaking, assemblies and graduation exercises.

The increasingly important role that the Glee Club plays in our school is evidenced by the larger than usual membership and the greater number of times that this group has entertained the school. We are optimistic enough to believe that some future picture will show a back row of boys or even an individual Boys' Glee Club.

The Christmas Play and many assemblies have been made more enjoyable by the voices of the Glee Club members. To climax the year's work, these artists are now rehearsing a musical which will portray the history and advancement of songs from the earliest folk songs to the present-day war tunes.

Lambda Tau Sigmas are proud of the fact that they were pioneers in the Junior Nurses' Aide Movement in the city of Worcester. Members have participated in Red Cross work and assisted in canvassing the town of Shrewsbury in behalf of the "March of Dimes."

The Hi-Y this year has had to devote more of its time to war activities, and therefore we have had less time for social functions. We have, however, been able to carry on and uphold our standard of leadership, scholarship, and character.

In the past year our intimate friend and adviser, Dr. Thomas Hunter, answered the call to colors and joined the Navy. We were very fortunate, however, in securing Dr. Francis Bicknell who has likewise befriended and guided us.

Sea Scouts

The Sea Scout Ship Saratoga, registered as Troop No. 155, in Worcester Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, was launched in Shrewsbury, June 1941. Governing all activities of Sea Scouting are four "S's": Scouting, Seamanship, Service, and Sociability. The regular meeting place of a sea scout group is known as a landship. The Saratoga's crew, since it's inauguration, through the courtesy of town officials, has had the privilege of using School No. 7 as a landship.

At regular weekly meetings the Scouts, in their nautical-appearing uniforms, are taught the principles of seamanship and navigation, including uses of knots, signalling, weather-lore, compass uses, cruising, emergency drills, and discipline. They have participated in a number of local events, and nine members are now serving the country with the armed forces.

Registered sponsors of this organization are a group of citizens including Charles F. Larkin, Chairman; Joseph F. Condon, Charles F. Woodward, Kenneth Beaman, Alfred Anderson, Jr., Edward C. Moroney and Clarence P. Marcoux, the latter of whom is "Skipper" of the Saratoga.

Present members, or "crew" of the ship include Kenneth Levesque, Hugh Hadley, Raymond Keegan, Richard Keegan, Sidney Dickinson, Walter Forrister, Donald Bird, Ralph Linton, George Ducat, Robert Noble, Robert Trumbull, Edmund Rourke, Philip Keegan, Douglas Bird, Edward Knipe, James Higgins, George Caraker, Leo Sorel, and Joseph Baxendale.

In view of the present National Emergency it was decided to form a Cadet Company if the response warranted doing so. During the latter part of January, the organization meeting was held, and Wednesday, February 3, was set as the first drill night.

On that first drill night there were 41 Cadets present and subsequent nights increased this number to 74 men. Unusually stormy weather made it necessary to cancel several drills, but the progress of the Cadets was nevertheless very satisfactory.

Each Cadet received the same instruction given to members of the Shrewsbury Company M.S.G., and a test was given to determine those to be promoted from the ranks of the Company. The results of the competitive examination were given on April 7 and those named above were promoted to the grade designated.

When weather and other conditions are considered, each and every member of this Company is to be congratulated on his attendance at drill, and it is hoped that this activity may be continued throughout the summer months.

Have you seen those visions in candy-striped or blue pinafores strolling through the corridors or attending classes? They are Nurses' Aides.

Yes, they are aides to the nurses and, of course, to the doctors in the understaffed hospitals. These young girls are doing a tremendous amount of work and, unlike the defense worker, do not receive any pay for their services. The only recompense they have is a sigh of comfort from a patient or a smile for some task willingly performed.

In order to be eligible these young people attended classes consisting of twenty-five hours for one month. Here they learned the art of making a hospital bed, giving back rubs and afternoon care, scrubbing a unit, arranging flowers, and carrying trays. The actual work in the hospitals is a result of this training and each girl gives up her time either three hours a day, once a week, or two hours a day, twice a week.

This work is decidedly unglamorous, but the girls have the satisfaction in knowing that they are doing their share toward the war effort.

For a second time the Blue and Gold girls' hockey team finished the campaign with an unblemished record under the direction of Mrs. Helen Ferguson. What's more—the team managed to keep its opponents from scoring throughout the campaign.

With only three veterans, Rita Rano, Jean Goodell, and Doris Hjerpe, on hand to start the year Shrewsbury pried the lid off by taking a close 1–0 decision from Holden High at Holden. Marjorie Hall tallied the winning goal. Shrewsbury girls managed to keep their record intact by registering another 1–0 verdict over Millbury at Millbury. Marjorie Hall again came through with the winning counter. Later in the season the local girls entertained Millbury High and turned in a 4–0 shutout. Marjorie Hall chalked up two goals while Helen O'Donnell and Lucille Arsenault scored one apiece.

Shrewsbury High's second team encountered Holden High second team twice during the season and both times finished on the long end of the score.

Marjorie Hall captained the 1942 team and, at the close of the season, Helen O'Donnell was named to lead next year's eleven.

With only one veteran, Marion Cadieux, on hand to start the season, Coach Mrs. Helen Ferguson faced the problem of rebuilding a new team for the 1942–43 campaign. However, with Jean Goodell doing some fancy shooting, the girls started off on the right foot by downing the Alumni, 19–14. Jean registered 11 points.

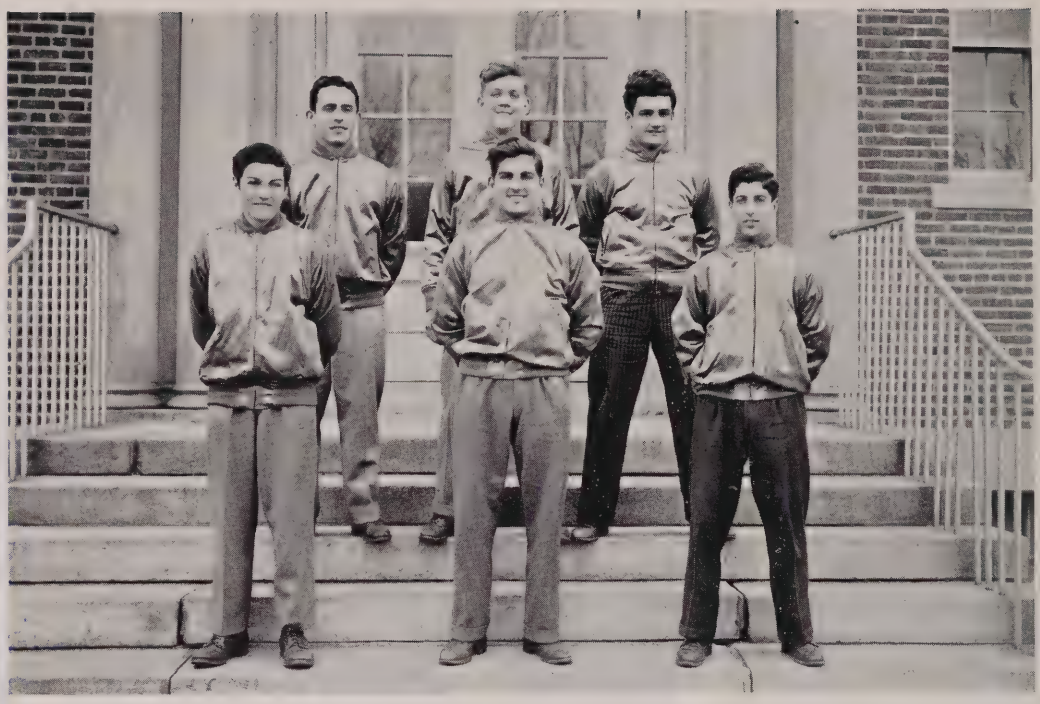
Everything pointed to a bright future, but the next four contests found the Blue and Gold hoopsters on the short end of the count. Westboro girls chalked up the first win over the local team, 32–31, in a hard-fought contest. Marlboro was next to turn the trick, 32–30, and then followed defeats by West Boylston, 31–27, and Northboro, 28–24.

Shrewsbury girls atoned for one of the above defeats when they entertained Northboro High girls. Jean Goodell and Marian Warren paced the Blue and Gold to a 30–24 decision. Jean Goodell continued her outstanding shooting and Shrewsbury downed Marlboro in a return game, 27–21. Jean tallied 23 of her team-mates 27 points.

In the final game of the season Shrewsbury girls traveled to Westboro, and when the smoke of battle had cleared, the Westboro girls had registered their second win of the season over the Blue and Gold, 34–15. Our girls also played contests with Norton Company girls and the Y.W.C.A.

Junior Varsity Basketball

Out of the four games that the Junior Varsity Team played, it won over Marlboro, the lone Shrewsbury victim, 32–15. Marlboro atoned for that one defeat winning, 21–15, in a return contest. Northboro registered two wins over the local team, 36–20 and 31–16.



BOYS' SPORTS

Fourth row: Mark Shevchenko, Wilfred Colson, Richard Flynn, George Maurice, Forrest Osgood, Alden Larson

Varsity Football

Despite a late start and the lack of experienced material, the 1942 Shrewsbury High football team opened its bid for another Blackstone Valley League championship by upsetting a highly favored Uxbridge High eleven, 6–0, at Uxbridge. Tom Yacuzzi's 45-yard sprint, early in the third quarter, was the only score of this closely fought contest.

Shrewsbury chalked up its second unexpected verdict, and moved a step nearer the title, by downing a hard charging Auburn High array, 6–0, on the latter's home grounds. Yacuzzi again tallied for the Blue and Gold with a sensational 80-yard dash midway through the third period. Alden Simone, Victor Zona, Charles Kotseas and Michael Bondanza played well for Shrewsbury.

Some brilliant forward passing by Yacuzzi and Simone coupled with the brilliant defensive play of Roger Reynolds, Louis Hubbard, Don Hawkins, Robert Doyle and Charles Kotseas gave Shrewsbury an easy 19–0 win over Millbury and with it the Worcester Telegram trophy, emblematic of the Blackstone Valley League championship.

Worcester Academy Grays, a newcomer to the Shrewsbury schedule, was next and the boys registered their fourth straight win of the campaign, 7–0. Richard Tisdell, Malcolm Johnson and Merrill Bergstrom starred.

Shrewsbury's victory string was suddenly snapped by one of the best Holden High teams in recent years and in the final two games of the season Northbridge and Westboro duplicated the feat.

Junior Varsity

Shrewsbury High's Junior Varsity team took part in three contests. Clinton High Jayvees downed the local eleven early in the season but later the Blue and Gold held the same team to a 0–0 deadlock. South High Jayvees also registered a victory over Shrewsbury, 19–12.

Besides Varsity and Junior Varsity football more than forty boys from the Grades took part in their own football program under the direction of Mr. Burns and Mr. Keck.

★ Boys in Service ★

John Cummins and Michael Bondanza, both members of the football squad, have entered the armed services.

Front row, left to right: John Flynn, Charles Kotseas, Victor Zona, Alden Simone, Richard Dean
Second row: Donald Hawkins, Thomas Yacuzzi, Roger Reynolds, Robert Doyle, Raymond Harlow, Clifford Nordwell

Varsity Basketball

When future Shrewsbury High basketball teams write history into the records, they can look back on the 1942–43 edition, captained by Victor Zona, and proudly say, "they are the fellows who paved the way." For it was Captain Zona and his mates who tackled one of the stiffest schedules in Shrewsbury High's long net history and turned in a creditable job despite many reverses.

For the first time Shrewsbury opened relations with such crack teams as Worcester North, South, Classical, Commerce, and Trade School and considering the fact that only one veteran was on hand at the opening of the season, the boys performed well against their older and more experienced opponents. The above teams took the measure of Shrewsbury High, but the experience gained in these conflicts will pay dividends in the future.

In Blackstone Valley League competition Shrewsbury won two games and lost four. Decisions were registered over Auburn and Millbury. Shrewsbury's schedule included twenty-four games.

Honored

Donald Hawkins, Victor Zona and Thomas Yacuzzi were honored at the close of the season by being invited to play with the High School All Stars, made up of schoolboy stars from the Worcester schools, to participate in the annual High School All Star-Ionic Avenue Boys' Club game in Worcester. All three boys played well.

Intra-mural Basketball

Basketball, basketball and more basketball was the byword throughout the winter months. It was a glorious day for teachers and students when net season came to a close. Saturday mornings found teams from the Grammar and Junior High schools taking part in league contests. Besides these games Freshmen and Jayvee teams performed during the weekday afternoons. All told, more than fifty basketball games were played in the hall and all this activity points to a banner basketball future at Shrewsbury High school.

Front row, left to right: Richard Dean, Thomas Yacuzzi, Louis Hubbard, Victor Zona, Alden Simone
Second row: Robert Woodward, Paul Paddock, Peter Cummins, Howard Ricker, Richard Flynn, John Seguin, Clifford Nordwell, John Flynn
Third row: Herbert Anderson, Wayne Green, George Ducat, Richard Quist, Roger Dean

Baseball

With six regular members of the 1942 Blackstone Valley League baseball champions returning for another campaign, Shrewsbury appears headed for another banner season. However, the boys will have to be at their best as two new teams, namely, St. Peter's and Worcester Trade, appear on the 1943 schedule.

In all, ten games will be played by the Blue and Gold. The initial contest finds Shrewsbury taking to the road to cross bats with the fast St. Peter's nine at Worcester on April 30. Shrewsbury will open its bid for another Valley League championship when it entertains Auburn High at Dean Park, May 11. The remainder of the schedule is as follows:

May 14 Grafton at Grafton
May 18 Worcester Trade at Shrewsbury
May 21 Millbury at Shrewsbury
May 25 Uxbridge at Uxbridge
May 28 St. Peter's at Shrewsbury
June 1 Holden at Shrewsbury
June 8 Holden at Holden
June 11 Worcester Trade at Worcester

Veterans returning for another campaign are as follows: Alden Simone, Richard Tisdell, Thomas Yacuzzi, Louis Hubbard, Richard Dean, and Victor Zona. Others with some baseball experience returning are John Flynn, George Ducat, James Birnie, Harold Carruth, Wallace Dunn, Robert Woodward, and Benjamin Cowley

As this goes to press, there is a possibility that two games with St. John's High School will be added to the slate. At any rate, the Shrewsbury High nine faces a stiff 1943 baseball card.

Crew

In the fall of 1936, Yale University donated two eight-oared shells to Shrewsbury High School and, since that time, Coach Kenneth Burns and our rowing have gained national recognition. Rowing has developed with leaps and bounds until at the present time Shrewsbury High, mainly through the efforts of Coach Burns, has at its disposal a boathouse, six eight-oared shells, four four-oared shells, one quad, six wherries, one coaching wherry, two comps, fourteen singles, and several smaller boats.

The 1943 oarsmen will have something to shoot at since past Blue and Gold crews have captured three national eight-oared championships and two four-oared titles. Coach Burns has another championship eight in the making with three members of last year's varsity crew, which include Eugene Dudley, Donald Hawkins, and Roger Reynolds. Second crew members who will be battling for regular jobs are Russell Bath, Peter Beck, Jerry Fiorelli, Merrill Bergstrom, Tom Brooks, Bob Doyle, Ray Harlow, Carl Oberg, and Bob Brown.

According to present plans the 1943 oarsmen will tangle with some of the following crews when they row the three races carded with M.I.T.; the two with the Harvard secondary eights, and the tentative races with Boston University and Brown & Nichols. Leicester Junior College and Worcester North may appear on the schedule along with four-oared races with St. Marks and Pomfret. There is a possibility that Coach Burns will also enter his boys in the National championships at Philadelphia.

Military Swimming

Swimming, qualification and instruction for all recruits is a "must" on the training schedules of our Naval Training Stations, and for these reasons Military Swimming is included in the Physical Fitness Program at Shrewsbury High School.

Military Swimming is part of our Physical Fitness Program which includes obstacle courses, boxing, wrestling, jump rope, calisthenics, competitive games, touch football, basketball, softball, soccer, track and field events.

Beginners' Swimming

Present plans call for beginners' classes at the Shrewsbury Boat House this coming vacation with Carrington Noel again instructing. He will try to instill confidence in all our non-swimmers so that in the future a large percentage of our boys will be able to take part in the advanced swimming courses.

Vote of Thanks

Shrewsbury is indeed grateful to Mr. Noel for giving his time to the teaching of our boys and to Mr. Warren Watters, Managing Director of the Boys' Club, for donating the Lincoln Square Swimming Pool.
